If you would like to volunteer or support this fundraising parish event please contact Fr Dat directly.

From Monday 28th September to Friday 2nd October, four parishioners joined Fr Joe on a 'walking retreat' along the Bibbulmun Track. The five day adventure walking through Monadnocks National Park in the Darling Scarp included traversing a few peaks and celebrating Mass on top of Mt Cooke at 582m. While raining only on Monday, weather was fine for the rest of the trip. The time spent in the beautiful Australian bush allowed for plenty of reflection and peaceful moments occasionally encountering a few small groups along the way. After trekking through the bush, all were happy to come home to their families for a home cooked meal and a hot shower.

Well done to our energetic hikers!

Did you know that October is National Mental Health Month? In addressing this topic, the Mater Christi book of the month is *The Catholic Guide to Depression by Aaron Kheriarty MD. This book highlights the importance of keeping good mental health in our day to day lives while also reminding us of how our faith in God can be an important source of strength and mental resilience. Reading this book sheds light onto important questions such as "Why does God allow me to feel low?" and "How do I know the difference between spiritual depression from mental depression?" A good read that is useful for all.
